Exciting Finishes in both the “Blue” and the “Gold “ Divisions as all four final games went down to the wire with the losing team one shot away from winning, all having scored 38pts. Couldn't have been a more exciting night. The Kings regained their 2009 Title by going 4-0 and Jimmy's came back from the losers bracket to retain their 2010 title with the winning shot in each of their victories an NBA 3 pointer. Great season and fun had by ALL. Also, FYI, heard from Kerry this eve and he is A-ok, no issues.
