

The sixth annual "Rivalry at the Rock" senior women's basket tournament will be held at the Slippery Rock University in Slippery Rock, Pennsylvania on April 16, 2011.

We will be using all National Games rules.

We hope to make this tournament bigger and better. Please help by spreading the word. It's a great warm-up for Nationals.

If we do not get sufficient teams in an age group, two groups may be combined. We hope to provide everyone with four games.

Once again we will schedule exhibition games for those players who do not get much playing time and would like to play. These will be pick-up games. This will assure everyone lots of organized play.

The entry fee is $100. plus $12.00 per player with a maximum of $200.00. This fee includes continental breakfast, lunch, fruit and water plus great fellowship.

Please spread the word about this event, as we do not have contact information for all teams in all states.

If you need hotel information or directions, let me know and I'll send them once I get your registration.

Help us make this tournament the best yet.

P.S. We will have the gym open on Friday night if you want to come for a warm-up. Let me know if you plan to attend so I can reserve adequate court space for the evening.
