The 2011 Delaware Senior Olympics 55+ baseball team managed by coordinator John DeBenedictis took the field against the 50+ team managed by Bob Corbett.

The early going was nip and tuck with Don McKinery and Frank Splan sharing the pitching duties for the 55+ers against Paul Lapinski and his 50+ squad. The score was deadlocked at 2-2 going into the middle innings when the 50+ team exploded for a seven run outburst. However, the 55+ers were not finished. They mounted a late rally and managed to get the tying run to the plate before losing by a 9-6 score. Jack Hopkins took over the pitching duties for the 50+ team and recorded the save.

The winners sported a line-up of Ty Coffield, Jack Hopkins, Bob Corbett, Rich Yankowitz, Ed Carl, Paul Lapinski, John Bristow, Allan Hill, and Rick Sanger.

The 55+ team countered with Willis Grier, Don McKinery, Skip Probst, Dave Schottenger, George White, Johnny White, Ollie Knotts, Glen Goldberg, and Frank Splan.
